

SE Bikes MAULER

|            |                                                                  |
|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Modelljahr | 2016                                                             |
| Material   | 100% Cr-Mo, Integrated Head Tube, Integrated Seat Clamp, Mid-BB, |
| Gabel      | Full Cr-Mo, Tapered Legs, 3/8" Dropouts w/ 32mm Offset           |
| Größen     | 20"                                                              |
| Farben     | Chrome                                                           |
| UVP:       | 499,00 EUR                                                       |

|              |                                                                 |            |                                                                               |
|--------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Reifen       | Kenda Ticket 20" x 2.25" F, Kenda Keyboard 20" x 2.10" R        | Pedale     | SE Nylon Fiber                                                                |
| Sattelstütze | Integrated Alloy, 25.4mm                                        | Innenlager | 0                                                                             |
| Lenker       | Cr-Mo Powerwing Bar, 28.5" x 8.25"                              | Kurbelsatz | 3-pc Cr-Mo, 175mm, Closed-End Invisibolt, Mid-Sealed Bearing, 25T SE Sprocket |
| Vorbau       | SE Top-Load Alloy, Lightweight External Cutouts, Hidden Top Cap | Kette      | KMC Z410A                                                                     |
| Griffe       | 0                                                               |            |                                                                               |
| Steuersatz   | Tange 1-1/8" Integrated Headset                                 |            |                                                                               |