

Cannondale 700 M S6 EVO Crb Ult REP 48

|            |                                                                            |
|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Modelljahr | 2017                                                                       |
| Material   | CARBON                                                                     |
| Gabel      | New SuperSix EVO, BallisTec Carbon ,SPEED SAVE, integrated crown race, |
| Bremse     | Shimano Ultegra/ Shimano Ultegra                                           |
| Schaltung  | Shimano Ultegra                                                            |
| Größen     | 48, 50, 52, 54, 56, 58, 60, 63                                             |
| Farben     | REP                                                                        |
| UVP:       | 2.599,00 EUR                                                               |

|             |                                           |            |                                        |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------|------------|----------------------------------------|
| Schalthebel | Shimano Ultegra                           | Kurbelsatz | Cannondale Si, BB30a, FSA rings, 52/36 |
| Umwerfer    | Shimano Ultegra, braze-on                 |            |                                        |
| Felgen      | Mavic Aksium WTS                          |            |                                        |
| Naben       | Mavic Aksium                              |            |                                        |
| Sattel      | Selle Royal Seta S1 w/ MG Rails           |            |                                        |
| Lenker      | Cannondale C3, Butted 6061 Alloy, Compact |            |                                        |